

Dear Kushal Ravindrakumar Gupta,
Subject: Regret of Internship Offer at BrainyBeam Info-Tech

I hope this letter finds you well. On behalf of the entire team at BrainyBeam Info-Tech, I want to express our sincere appreciation for the effort and time you invested in the practical round of our selection process.

After a thorough review of the task you submitted, our development team carefully assessed the outcomes. While we acknowledge the dedication and effort you put into the task, we regret to inform you that the team did not find it to be a match for our specific requirements and standards.

We understand that these assessments can be subjective, and we want to assure you that we recognize the commitment it takes to participate in such processes. Your willingness to take on the challenge and contribute to our selection process is commendable.

Despite the outcome, we want to extend our sympathy and gratitude for your efforts. We value the dedication you exhibited and believe that your skills and talents may find a better fit elsewhere.

We encourage you to continue pursuing opportunities that align with your career goals and aspirations. Your enthusiasm and commitment to growth are qualities that will undoubtedly contribute to your success in the future.

Once again, we appreciate your interest in BrainyBeam Info-Tech and wish you every success in your future endeavors. If you have any questions or would like specific feedback to aid in your professional development, please feel free to reach out to us.

Thank you for considering us as a potential part of your journey, and we wish you the very best.
